Read Naturally's highly effective programs offer a proven strategy to help struggling readers develop their reading skills. Our Train the Trainer workshop, taught by nationally recognized educators, provides intensive training and all of the materials you need to train teachers in your district to effectively implement Read Naturally programs.

Intended Audience

Train the Trainer is aimed specifically at educators who are designated by their schools or school districts to teach the Read Naturally strategy to others. It is not advanced Read Naturally training for teaching students in the classroom.

Prerequisites

Before attending Train the Trainer, you must have attended a full-day Read Naturally seminar. Attendance at the full-day seminar on Wednesday, Oct. 12 is mandatory for people who have not yet attended one. Even if you have previously attended a seminar, you may want to consider attending this seminar as a refresher.

Highlights

- Gain a thorough understanding of Read Naturally's fluency solutions, focusing on Read Naturally Masters Edition (ME) and Software Edition (SE).
- Learn about other Read Naturally solutions for reading development, including the Group and Tutoring Edition (GATE) for beginning readers, Take Aim! at Vocabulary, the Word Warm-ups phonics program, the One Minute Reader program for home use, and Signs for Sounds.
- Learn about Read Naturally's reading assessment tools.
- Learn directly from Candyce Ihnot, founder of Read Naturally, and other top Read Naturally experts.
- Learn about the latest fluency research.
- Obtain hands-on presentation practice with Read Naturally experts.
- Receive extensive materials for teaching the Read Naturally strategy, including PowerPoint slides, presenter's guides, teacher's guides, and more (see details on the next page).

*To become a certified trainer and receive the complete training materials, participants must demonstrate an understanding of the content delivered and present a short demo lesson to their small groups.

What You Will Learn

The Train the Trainer workshop is led by a team of Read Naturally experts and nationally recognized educators (see next page). Using a combination of large-group sessions, small-group sessions, and practice sessions, this in-depth training will prepare you to successfully teach the Read Naturally concepts and techniques to educators at in-service workshops and school conferences in your school district.

You will learn how to teach teachers...

- The importance of attaining fluency and how fluency directly correlates with comprehension.
- To combine the research-based strategies of teacher modeling, repeated reading, and self-monitoring of progress to significantly improve fluency in developing readers.
- To use detailed procedures to implement Read Naturally.
- To assess and place students in the right Read Naturally levels.
- To assess students' reading rates, accuracy, and expression.
- To adjust students' reading levels and goal rates to accelerate their reading achievement and motivation.
- To use the computer-based fluency development programs, Read Live and Read Naturally Software Edition.
- To set up a Read Naturally learning center for maximum efficiency.
- To identify the purpose and benefits of reading assessments and the correct use of Read Naturally's assessment tools, including the Reading Fluency Benchmark Assessor, Reading Fluency Progress Monitor, and Quick Phonics Screener.

Candyce Ihnot, the developer of Read Naturally—a practical, motivating, and effective solution for fluency development.

Materials You Will Receive

You will receive all the training materials you need to understand and teach the Read Naturally strategy (valued at over $400.00).

Materials include:

- PowerPoint slides and detailed presenter's guides for six-hour and one-hour Read Naturally training.*
- Electronic masters of handouts used in the six-hour Read Naturally seminar, six-hour Read Naturally SE seminar, and one-hour conference presentation, including workbooks*, placement packet, teacher's manuals, and white papers.
- A rationale and research packet, which explains the rationale behind the Read Naturally strategy and research results that show its effectiveness.
- A placement packet, which includes complete instructions for placing students, a placement worksheet, and stories for conducting placement tests.
- A Read Naturally ME Teacher's Manual, which describes the materials needed for an effective Read Naturally program, explains each step in the Read Naturally strategy, and includes sample lesson plans.
- One Read Naturally level (your choice).
- A Read Naturally steps poster.

Our Instructors

Candyce Ihnot is a dynamic, credible presenter who will motivate you with her practical approach, sense of humor, and real life stories. Since 1991, thousands of teachers have been inspired by her Read Naturally presentations. Candyce received the National Urban Education Teacher Recognition Award for developing the Read Naturally strategy.

Barb Denbow is an experienced, enthusiastic presenter and a teacher of over 25 years. Her incredible love for teaching and knowledge of reading instruction shows through her students' success and inspiring presentations. Her remedial reading students have had excellent results with the Read Naturally strategy.

Karen Hunter, Read Naturally's Director of Curriculum and Professional Development, has more than 25 years of experience as a reading specialist, special education teacher, and educational consultant/trainer in northern California. Karen uses her experience and deep understanding of reading to develop effective reading interventions and the training necessary for effective implementation.

Carol Ann Kane is an outstanding presenter and reading resource teacher from Cedar Rapids, IA, who has accelerated the reading achievement of her students by using the Read Naturally strategy. As a presenter, Carol shares her experience using Read Naturally and motivates teachers to use the Read Naturally principles to significantly improve the fluency and comprehension of Title I, special education, ELL, and mainstream students.

Dr. Jan Hasbrouck, an educational consultant who has served as Executive Director of the Washington State Reading Initiative, has had extensive experience working with students from kindergarten through college. Widely regarded as an outstanding presenter, Jan has had widespread experience using the Read Naturally strategy and helping teachers and administrators design and implement effective instructional programs for low-performing students.

Sarah Jane Schonour is a National Board Certified Teacher, author, and consultant who enjoys sharing strategies that work. She has worked in public education for over 15 years and has had great success using the Read Naturally strategy. Teachers have been very impressed with the expertise and organization of her presentations.

Ben Weisner is a Senior Solutions Manager at Read Naturally. Ben has been involved in software product development, support, and training for over 20 years. He is a highly-rated presenter at technology conferences in North America and Europe.
