7 The Nobel Peace Prize is awarded to 14 people who have worked to help bring 23 peace to the world. In 1979, this honor was 30 given to Mother Teresa—a nun who 37 worked with the poor in Kolkata, India.

43 Mother Teresa was born in Eastern 52 Europe. At age 18, she traveled to India to 59 join a convent and teach high school.
68 Then, when she was 36, she felt a divine
76 calling to stop teaching and help the poor.
85 So she founded an order of nuns called the Missionaries of Charity.

88 Mother Teresa spent the rest of her life
96 assisting poor people. She lived and 102 worked in the slums for more than 50
110 years. She and her followers offered food,

117 shelter, and medical care to those in need.
125 More importantly, they genuinely cared for 131 people and attempted to make everyone
137 feel wanted. "The poor do not need our 145 sympathy and pity. They need our love
152 and compassion," Mother Teresa said.

157 Mother Teresa didn't keep the Nobel
163 Peace Prize money for herself. Instead, she 170 used it to expand her service to the poor
179 and sick. Over time, the Missionaries of 186 Charity brought this service to over 130
193 countries. Mother Teresa clearly did her
199 part to help bring peace to the world.
207 Many have learned from her loving 213 example.
