

Fried to Perfection

Review Key Words

invented	created
customer	a person who buys something
angry	mad or upset
crispy	thin and crunchy

Write a Prediction

Read the Story

6	The most popular snack in America	112	tried them liked them too, and 13	was invented because a cook got angry.	118	customers kept asking for them. For
21	George Crum was a cook at a restaurant	124	many years, people called them
27	in Saratoga Springs, New York. One	129	Saratoga chips after the town where 34	day in 1853, a customer who had	135	they were first made.
41	ordered fried potatoes sent them back to	139	Even now, after more than 140
48	the kitchen. He wanted the cook to	145	years, potato chips are very popular. At 55	slice them thinner and fry them longer.	152	least one of every ten potatoes grown in
63	George Crum had a bad temper , and he	160	the United States is made into potato
70	thought the potatoes were fine the way	167	chips. You can get potato chips that are 78	he made them. In order to teach the	175	plain or rippled. There are even 84	customer a lesson, he sliced potatoes	181	flavored chips, like sour cream and
92	very thin and fried them until they were	187	onion, cheese, or barbecue-flavored
99	crispy. But instead of being angry, the	192	chips. So if you like potato chips, be
105	customer loved the new fried potatoes!	200	glad George Crum had a bad temper!
	He asked for more. Other people who	207

Cold Timing Score: _____ Final Timing Score: _____

